Refugee, evacuee, human

- Pop Up Photography exhibition

15 December 2015 – 6 March 2016

Exhibition is closed

The Picture Collections of the National Board of Antiquities present a Pop Up photography exhibition with photos of refugees, evacuees, immigrants and migrants: people who have arrived in or left Finland over the course of several decades.

Most of the photos are from between the 1920s and 1990s. The oldest photographs date back to 1893 and the most recent are from 2015.

The photographs are from the Picture Collections of the National Board of Antiquities and the Finnish Press Photo Archives JOKA. The most recent photographs have been taken by photographer Kaisa Rautahelmo of Helsingin Sanomat newspaper.

The oldest photographs from 1893 show Finnish immigrants leaving for the United Kingdom, Canada and the United States aboard the S/S Urania.

The first quota refugees came to Finland from Chile and Vietnam in the 1970s. Kaisa Rautahelmo has photographed the present refugee crisis for Helsingin Sanomat. The photos tell a story of the tens of thousands of asylum seekers who are now looking for security and a new life in Finland.

The exhibition Refugee, evacuee, human will be displayed in room 010, next to the cafeteria, on the museum ground floor from Tuesday 15 December 2015 to Sunday 6 March 2016.
Exhibition is closed

Albums of Mascha von Heiroth (1871 – 1934)

• • • TIE TOKIRJAT

ANNA-LISA AMBERG
Piireissä
Ihmisiä ja ilmoitettu Mascha von Heirothin
(1871–1934) elämän varrelta

Huikka tarina rohkeasta ja radikaalista naisesta sekä vuosisatojen vailleen suihkuseurapuureista

Piireissä perustuu Mascha von Heirothin paiväkirjaan merkitöihin, kirjeenvaihtoon ja laajaan arkeenheitoon. Sen sydämenä on Mascha von Heirothin vaimo, hollantilainen, joita hänellä konttavat testost.

Venäläisyyppinen Mascha von Heiroth näi helsinkiläisen muotonaissa pitkän. Hän sohni saksanlaista ja neljä sisiliittoa, mutta vetti ahti viimeiset vuosensa eronneen rouvansa, 1920-luvulla hienen kulttuuressa eläjäteva Villa Rundin saaliin luodun kolmisenkymmentä vuoden ajan. Venäläisyyppinen Mascha von Heiroth näi helsinkiläisen muotonaissa pitkän. Hän sohni saksanlaista ja neljä sisiliittoa, mutta vetti ahti viimeiset vuosensa eronneen rouvansa, 1920-luvulla hienen kulttuuressa eläjäteva Villa Rundin saaliin luodun kolmisenkymmentä vuoden ajan.

Kansainvälisen taiteilijayhteisön Maschan oli johdatettu saksilais-kirjallisuudentaaja Wenzel von Haegelmannin kanssa. Itsemässä ja mielestään taidetta vähittävät uuden ystävien bohemien ja vapaudenlinnen elämäntapa, hinnostukseen pohjana olivat Maschan omat taiteelliset harrastukset ja erityiskiinnostus muistikirjauuteen. Onnan seisoessa hän sasutti laajan sisiliittimynteen, monipuolisen teidätöitänsä, ammatillisen sosiaalisen luonteenkuonensa ja koulutuksella tunnetun kuonettensa vuoksi.

Maschan suosimaisista ystävistä olivat muun muassa Albert Edelfelt, Hugo Simberg, Alcedi Gallén-Kallela ja Jean Sibelius. Minni hyvinen Mascha oleskellikin hänen ympärilleen runsas-tulpiin laaja ja ystäväysverkosto, johon siis olisivat kuuluvat muun muassa taidemaalari Anders Zorn, kirjailija Gertrude Stein ja Knut Hammar sekä arkkitehti Frank Lloyd Wright.
